Saturday, February 1*ſt*, 1746. [Numb. 619]

A SPEECH, made by His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of YORK, at the preſenting an Aſſociation enter'd into at the Caſtle of York, Sept. 24, 1745.

My Lords; Gentlemen; My Reverend Brethren of the Clergy;

I AM deſired by the Lords Lieutenants of the ſeveral Ridings, to open to you the Reaſons of our Aſſemblings: And as the Advertiſement, which has called us together, is in every Body's Hands, and the Fact now ſpeaks itſelf too plainly, a few Words will be ſufficient on the Occaſion.

It was ſome Time before it was believ'd, (I wou'd to God it had gain'd Credit ſooner) but now every Child knows it, That the Pretender's Son is in Scotland; has ſet up his Standard there; has gather'd and diſciplin'd an Army of great Force; receives daily Increaſe of Numbers; is in the Poſſeſſion of the Capital City there; has defeated a ſmall Part of the King's Forces; and is advancing with haſty Steps towards England.

What will be the Iſſue of this rapid Progreſs, muſt be left to the Providence of God. However, what is incumbent upon us to do, is to make the beſt Proviſion we can againſt it; and every Gentlgman, I dare ſay every Man in England, will think it his Wiſdom, and his Intereſt, to guard againſt the miſchievous Attempts of theſe wild and deſperate Ruffians.

But the great Miſchief to be feared, which ought to alarm us exceedingly, and put us immediately on our Defence, is the certain Evidence, which every Day opens more and more, that theſe Commotions in the North are but Part of a great Plan concerted for our Ruin. —— They have begun under the Countenance, and will be ſupported by the Forces of France and Spain, our old and inveterate (and late Experience calls upon me to add, our ſavage and blood thirſty) Enemies — A Circumſtance that ſhould fire the Indignation of every honeſt Engliſhman. If theſe Deſigns ſhould ſucceed, and Popery and arbitrary Power come in upon us, under the Influence and Direction of theſe two tyrannical and corrupted Courts, I leave you to reflect, what would become of every Thing that is valuable to us!

We are now bleſs'd with the mild Adminiſtration of a Juſt and Proteſtant King, who is of ſo ſtrict an Adherence to the Laws of our Country, that not an Inſtance can be pointed out, during his whole Reign, wherein he has made the leaſt Attempt upon the Liberty, or Property, or Religion, of a ſingle Perſon. But if the Ambition and Pride of France and Spain is to dictate to us, we muſt ſubmit to a Man to govern us under their hated and accurſed Influence, who brings his Religion from Rome, and the Rules and Maxims of his Government from Paris and Madrid.

For God's Sake, Gentlemen, let us conſider this Matter as becomes us, and let no Time be loſt to guard againſt this prodigious Ruin. To your immortal Honour be it ſpoken, you have conſider'd it; and are now met together to call in the unanimous Conſent and Aſſiſtance of this great County. This County, as it exceeds every other for its Extent and Riches, ſo it very naturally takes the Lead of the inferior ones. And it will be extremely to our Credit; give Courage to the Friends of the beſt Conſtitution in the World; damp the Spirit of its Enemies at home; (if any ſuch can be conceived in Britain at this dangerous Criſis) and be an Inſtruction to thoſe abroad; that there is ſtill Spirit and Honeſty enough amongſt us to ſtand up in Defence of our common Country. This will be the Uſe of an unanimous and hearty Declaration of Fidelity to our Country, and Loyalty to our King. But the Times, Gentlemen, call for ſomething more than this! Something muſt be done, as well as ſaid. —— And the Fund for our Defence, already begun, and now to be propoſed to this great Aſſembly, will, it is hoped, from Reaſons of publick Example and publick Safety, meet with the hearty Concurrence of every one that compoſes it. And at the ſame Time that your Hearts go along with the Aſſociation, your Hands will be open to ſupport the neceſſary Meaſures of Self-Defence.

As to you, my Reverend Brethren, I have not long had the Honour to preſide among you; but from the Experience I have had, and what I have always heard of your honeſt Love to your Country, (if you permit me to ſay ſo) I will be your Security to the Publick, that you will decline no Pains to inſtruct and animate your People; nor Expence, according to your Circumſtances, to ſtand up againſt Popery and arbitrary Power, under a French or a Spaniſh Government — We ſcorn the Policies of the Court of Rome; have no Intereſts ſeparate from the People; but on every Occaſion, where our Country is concern'd, look upon ourſelves as incorporated with the warmeſt Defenders of it; or, if we do deſire to be diſtinguiſh'd, it will be by our Ardor and Zeal to preſerve our happy Conſtitution.

Let us unite then, Gentlemen, as one Man, to ſtop this dangerous Miſchief, from which Union no Man ſurely can withdraw, or withhold his Aſſiſtance, who is not liſted into the wicked Service of a French or Spaniſh Invaſion, or wholly unconcern'd for the Fate of his Bleeding Country.

May the great God of Battles ſtretch out his powerful Hand to defend us; inſpire an Union of Hearts and Hands among all Ranks of People; a clear Wiſdom into the Councils of his Majeſty; and a ſteady Courage and Reſolution into the Hearts of his Generals.

Whitehall, Oct. 15. By Letters of the 8th Inſt. from Edinburgh, there is Advice, that the Pretender's Son having, upon the 2d, publiſhed an Order for preventing all Communication between the Caſtle and the Town, upon Pain of Death; and great Numbers of the Rebels having for that Purpoſe been placed in the Houſes near the Caſtle, General Gueſt had been oblig'd not only to fire upon them, but to march out, and burn them to the Ground: That thereupon another Order for reſtoring the Communication was, upon the 5th, paſted up at the ſeveral Gates of Town; and that ever ſince the Garriſon had been plentifully ſupplied with every Thing they wanted.

London, Oct. 16. The Proprietors of the Prince Frederick and Duke Privateers, waited on his Majeſty, and offer'd the Sum of 700,000 l Sterl (their Share of the Money taken by the ſaid Privateers) to be immediately employ'd for his Majeſty's Service, which he was pleaſed to accept; and the Money is to be repaid in ſuch Manner as ſhall be adjug'd moſt proper by Parliament.

Whitehall, Oct. 16. Letters from Berwick of the 12th confirm the Account, that 500 Men from Aberdeenſhire had join'd the Rebels; they march'd into Dalkeith upon the 8th and 10th, under the Command of the Lord Pitſligo.

Oct. 17. By Advices of the 14th from Berwick, a Scotch Ship was arrived at Montroſe, and brought (as was given out) Money and Arms, and ſome Officers, for the Uſe of the Rebels, who continu'd upon the 13th in and about Edinburgh, without any Appearance of an immediate March from thence, tho' they continu'd iſſuing Orders for the Country Horſes to come in to them upon the 15th, upon Pain of military Execution.

London, Oct. 18. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland arrived here in good Health at St. James's from Flanders.

The Admirals and Captains of his Majeſty's Fleets have enter'd into an Aſſociation to ſupport and ſtand by his Majeſty in the preſent Exigency, with their Lives and Fortunes, and have have agreed that a Regiment of Foot be immediately rais'd, to be made use of during his Majesty's Pleasure; and they desire and consent they shall be paid for and deducted out of their Salaries.

Besides the Association at York and Worchester, already mentioned, Associations were enter'd into, all over England, for raising Forces in Defence of his Majesty and the Kingdom, against the Pretender and all his Adherents; and Addresses presented to that Purpose, from every County and Corporation, &c.

Oct. 19. By Advices from Edinburgh of the 15th, there was a great Spirit of Insolence reigning among the Highland Officers, against their Chief Commanders, occasion'd by the Want of their Pay.

Oct. 21. His Majesty went to the House of Peers, and gave the Royal Assent to the Bill for enabling his Majesty to secure and detain such Persons as shall be suspected of treasonable Practices against his Majesty's Person and Government: Whereby the Habeas Corpus Act was suspended for six Months.

A Proclamation was publish'd by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland (on an Address from the House of Commons there) promising a Reward of 50,000 l. to any Person or Persons, who shall seize and secure the Person of the eldest Son of the Pretender alive, or bring in his Body dead, if he shall land, or attempt to land in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Oct. 22. Letters arriv'd this Afternoon from Berwick, of the 19th, mention, that on the 17th. the Rebels remain'd still at Edinburgh. Lieutenant General Handasyd was arriv'd at Berwick and had taken upon him the Command of his Majesty's Forces there.

Oct. 27. Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales was safely delivered of a Prince.
